

Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to
air an anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the election
is a clear example
of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the
public airwaves free
of charge, and is
obligated by law to serve the public interest. However,
forcing their
stations to show a
one-sided
"documentary,"
particularly so
close to the presidential election, is an obvious violation of the public interest.

Please take my comments into consideration in future FCC decisions
regarding Sinclair
Broadcasting.

Thank you.
